Paul and Virginia by Bernardin de Saint

My only remarks is about the ending. A good book is a good friend.

Statue of Paul and Virginie, Mauritius

As you will see from my comments, during the first half I thought that the author believed in the dreadful system of morality he was apparently trying to sell me. He was a friend of, the governor of Mauritius, who appears in the novel providing training and encouragement for the island's natives.

Paul and Virginia by Bernardin de Saint

The novel's title characters are friends since birth who fall in love. Darkness is falling, and they're scared. This is what reading is meant to be.

Paul et Virginie (1838 edition)

At the same time it contains a remarkable synthesis of the beliefs and doctrines of the Enlightenment philosophers. So naturally I had to find out what it was all about. Lorsque pointe l'adolescence, Virginie sent naître en elle un sentiment amoureux qu'elle ne sait encore nommer.
