Why First

Someone had died in every house. It illustrates that God was arranging history to bear witness to the greatest act of love: the crucifixion. In Exodus 11:5 this is not the case since the same context talked of the firstborn of the animals -- animals don't have heirs.

Death of the Firstborn

Not that I believe in any of this nonsense.

Why First

This is why we can pray with faith the same prayer that Paul prayed for the Ephesians, knowing that God works in our lives today. Your own son will die, and so will the son of the lowest slave woman. This is an example of sin cannibalizing itself, so that the sins of the fathers fall upon later generations.

Psalm 136:10 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt His loving devotion endures forever.

The punishment of the death of firstborn being a punishment to Pharaoh for the decree to kill firstborn of Israel's children, but to also remove Pharaoh from his seat of power.

What type of God would kill the firstborn of Egypt?

Abraham was not a first-born. Leviticus 25:35 If one of your brethren becomes poor, and falls into poverty among you, then you shall help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you.
