Watch and-ward in Spen Valley. The aerial photo of 1925 shows some paths and many strange marks that may be either the remains of WW1 practice trenches or pens for animals in the great agricultural show of that year. I appreciate that it is a shot in the dark as there are many Hirsts in your area but I wondered whether any of the information I have provided rings any bells with anyone? Owners of the district at the time of Kirkby's inquest.

the Contents of Valley, past and by Frank Peel

EARLY OWNERS AND THEIR HOUSEHOLDS. Hand-written reference numbers on end-papers. The brewing process meant it was less likely than water to be impure.

SPEN VALLEY AT THE CLOSE OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. William del Spen and his estate.

User talk:Dave

In the absence of coroner's reports for that period, we have copies of the local newspapers which were sent from the Local Studies Centre which make reference to her living at Butts Mill Cottages and a neighbour living at 236 Butts Mill Yard. It was represented by a MP from 1983 to 1997, then by MP until 2015, when Wood retired and was succeeded by Labour.

Early death of John Rayner. In 1800 children were paid starvation wages for putting staples into leather for carding wool, but by 1838 there were eleven carding factories in Cleckheaton and by 1893 the town was recognised as the carding capital of the world. Curious hand writing in the Towns' Books.
