Unsung heroes

Norma Riccucci knows that management matters, and she addresses a critical gap in the understanding of public policy by uniquely focusing on the effects of public management on street-level bureaucrats. This week we finally meet the legendary Santa Claus and he is not the jolly, old elf you imagined. It highlights the tensions workers experience when faced with meeting the goal of helping families and the demands for accountability and documentation and sheds light on the roles of professional norms and occupational cultures in shaping workers' client interactions.

VIP; 40: Unsung Heroes : Federal Execucrats Making a Difference (Paperback)

Do you find comfort in the simple fact that no matter what happens no one can take your hope away? OK, seriously, who moved my cheese? This week the Red Taped lost boys try to grow up and become self-reliant although we would prefer not to.
