A

President John Adams is the first President to live in the White House, then known as the Executive Mansion and sixteen days later, the United States Congress holds its first session in Washington, D. During a June 1936 visit to Canada, President told Prime Minister that a highway to Alaska through Canada could be important in quickly reinforcing the American territory during a foreign crisis. Bridges, which progressed during 1942 from temporary, were replaced with steel bridges where necessary.
