Call It Sleep: A Novel

A young, painfully sensitive boy named David is growing up in the grimy Jewish slums of the Lower East Side, with his unemployable, rageoholic father and his angelic, nurturing mother.

Call It Sleep: A Novel

At last they reached the trolley lines. David's inner turmoil is portrayed in stream of conscious style which is equally draining.

Call it sleep (1964 edition)

David decides to think for himself by preferring an authority outside the four walls of his home. The weather for the last two days has been spectacular.

Call It Sleep Summary

There were some utterly lovable scenes, and some memorable characters. It was so long, and practically nothing happened in it.

Call it Sleep

Some of this is just being a child, some the hostility that surrounds him, only alleviated by his doting mother. Where they flew in lower air, they hung like a poised and never-raveling smoke; nearer at hand and higher, they glittered like rippling water in the sun.
