He was an Artist-in-Residence at the Visual Studies Workshop in Rochester, New York and Weir Farm in Wilton, Connecticut. I was always drawn to abstraction - having an art education in the '60's it was hard to avoid - and have continued to plough that furrow.

Bob CHAPLIN (1927) : Auction sales, auction indices and biography of Bob CHAPLIN

I've been creating art with acrylic paint and mixed media off and on since 1972. The outlined garden sections between the pathways will not be planted like a traditional parterre and will not be mowed. The geometric garden design of A Natural Parterre is approximately 136 feet by 64 feet with pathways currently defined by wooden stakes and twine.
