Human trafficking in Afghanistan

Article 56: A newly employed worker shall be entitled to his first annual leave for his first year of employment when he has worked for 11 consecutive months with the relevant establishment. Due to continued insecurity in Afghanistan, deportations, when they have occurred, have attracted criticism.

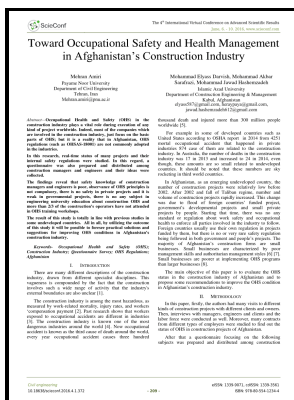

The Rule of Law in Afghanistan

Returns—both voluntary and involuntary, though the distinction in the Afghan case is often blurry—have begun to tick upward again since 2015 and surged in 2016 , the result of increasingly restrictive policies by host countries where patience for refugees is wearing thin.
