Now I desire to be passive and leave the event in His hands. When we behold Jesus and His love by the eye of faith, we may, with the prophet of old, sit down by a barren fig tree and a failing crop—and still rejoice in the God of our salvation. With our dear love to you both, wishing you all the blessings of the New Covenant, I remain, Affectionately yours, John Newton Olney, July 26, 1766 My dear Brother, I seldom choose to let Mr.

Breaking Christian News Headlines

Brown should ever return himself or dismiss me from his curacy, neither of which perhaps is probable, then I would be at liberty. I hope Jehovah will be Rophi, her healer, as we have found Him a healer with us.

Waterford Church of Christ

Today's spoken and written Hebrew, taught correctly, is that bridge. I remembered your love to many of our friends; they return their thanks and love again.

Christiane Amanpour

I hear more or less good news almost every week. To His grace I must ascribe it, and not to myself. The love corresponds to the object.

The Christian Correspondent

I suppose it will be too soon to expect you down to accompany me thither, but hope you will make what haste you can. I went last week to see
