Historical Reading Plan by Back To The Bible

In fact, though, 'maximalist' has been widely defined as someone who accepts the biblical text unless it can be proven wrong.

This marvelous development was possible only because the seed of the new thought floated free on the main currents of communication, which were ever sweeping back and forward between the heart of the empire and its outlying members.

The Bible

The Protestant Reformation saw an increase in translations of the Bible into the common languages of the people.

Is the Bible an historical book?

This, they claim, would confirm that a major redaction of the texts seems to have occurred at about that date. A good example of the attempt at compromise and of the illogicality of such an attempt, is found in the main subject of our investigation -- Luke's story of the birth of Christ and the first enrollment of Palestine. But he must not found his reasoning upon the error.

Catholics and the Bible

If there are not clear references to such figures in extra-biblical texts, their historical existence is unverified and therefore assumed to be part of mythic hero stories. Abraham was called by God to the land of Canaan.
