Federal :: Announcement of the Availability of the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program for FY2000

The mission of COPS is to advance public safety through the practice of community policing. As a result, too many Americans will continue becoming victims of preventable crimes, and the terrible stories that occupy our news cycles all too often will remain a regular part of daily life in this country. Although the calculations in this report are specific to those states, they include 65 percent of the total illegal alien population in the U.
