Elizabethan Theatre

This led to the Morality Plays which imparted moral values to the audiences between 1400 and 1550. These young men became known as the University Wits and included Thomas Kyd, Robert Green, John Lyly, Thomas Nash and George Peele. Companies became known by the title of the patron's household.

Introduction to Theatre

Plays were only presented at City Dionysia festival. The qualities of Ananse are one of the most prevalent parts of the play.
