Pope Benedict explains St. Paul's teaching on justification to thousands

The Torah is eternally true; the covenant is truly new. The blessings and inheritance of the Church are heavenly Ephesians 1. Favoritism toward the well-dressed at the expense of not giving the same respect to a person with filthy, worn clothes is breaking the law of loving one's neighbor.

Galatians 5:23 gentleness, and self

God created the seventh-day Sabbath and He made it Holy, says scripture. Paul is clearly speaking of the Mosaic laws, in Galatians he even gives a date and says it was added to the moral law.

What Paul Says about Fulfilling the Law (part 2 of 3)

And in speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete ἀφανισμός. It is subtle but it is there. They enable us to become vessels of forgiveness in difficult situations.

Christ Jesus Fulfilled The Law

The Sabbath concerned the civil and ceremonial law of Israel.

Romans 13:8

He did it as a compromise with Sun Worship and the Christians who were observing Saturday. This is kinda shocking, but amazing. The Universe knows there are no problems.

Paul and the Law

The one exception was the Sabbath. Love can be described as the bridge that enables great gulfs to be spanned. He himself still observed the Torah, and proved it to James when asked to do so in Acts 21:24-26.
