What role does religion play in your life?

In these circumstances, we must be concerned to deepen our appreciation of the great gift of the Eucharist and place at the very heart of our lives the Sacred Mystery of the Body and Blood of our Lord, alive and present in the Community to sustain and inspire it in its journey to the Father. By , NewsCenter 9 November 2004 A thousand points of view Check out the , with opinions on the presidential election, the Free Speech Movement, and more.

30 Major Pros & Cons Of Religion

As a former journalist and one that wrote obituaries for a small newspaper for a summer , I taught them about this writing form. In contemplative communities, it should respect their own style of life.

05. The Challenges of Life in Community

My mom took me to church when I was a kid, and I believe in God, but I don't believe in religion. As happened in the first community in Jerusalem cf. Communal celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours, or at least of some part of it, has revitalised prayer in many communities, which have been brought into more lively contact with the word of God and the prayer of the Church.

The Connection Between Religion, Praying and Living Longer

How can anyone dare contradict us if we claim divine authority for what we want to do? This objective condition, which clearly holds religious themselves responsible, calling them to be faithful to this, their primary mission, correcting and eliminating anything which could attenuate or weaken the drawing power of their example, makes their presence in the particular Church identifiable and precious, prior to any other consideration. Naturally, very close collaboration should be worked out with respect for the reciprocal vocations and different styles of life proper to religious and to lay persons. A deepened understanding of the charism leads to a clearer vision of one's own identity, around which it is easier to build unity and communion.

The challenges facing religious life today

It is well to recall that the right moment cannot be rushed.

Experiences in community : should religious life survive?

Religious arguments are often flawed Another issue of religion is that the arguments made by priests or other religious people are often flawed and can be disproved by rather simple arguments. This diversity is presented in their constitutions, which outline the character of the institute, and thus the character of the religious community. The same life-giving presence of the Holy Spirit 22 builds in Christ organic cohesion: he unifies the Church in communion and ministry, co-ordinates and directs it with various hierarchic and charismatic gifts which complement each other, and makes the Church beautiful by his fruits.
