Allama Iqbal

Khush Aa Gyi Hai Jahan Ko Qalandari Meri Wagarna Shair Mera Kya Hai, Shayari Kya Hai! If this view of the prophetic teaching is meant to apply to Islam it is obviously a misrepresentation. We, the Iranian people feel with confidence that we are self-supporting, trust our culture and values, and can stabilize this civilization on our ideology and thinking Read Complete Article here The kernel of the prophetic teaching is already Magian.

Iqbal ka Pakistan aur Aaj ka Naujawan

I have already indicated the direction in which the student of Islam should seek the cultural meaning of the doctrine of finality in Islam. All his lifetime scholarly works are exclusively for the service of humanity. Probably he also viewed those as Magian or Christian influences.

. The point to note is that the Magians admitted the existence of false gods; only they did not turn to worship them. .

Allama Iqbal A True Scholar Not Just A Poet

Edited November 27, 2012 by Haydar Husayn It's well known. Spirit of Muslim culture, last two paragraphs For those who don't know, Ibn Khaldun, who was a major Sunni scholar particularly of the philosophy of history rejected the idea of the Mahdi, so there is no doubt what Iqbal is talking about here. Falak Ne Un Ko Atta Ki Hai Khawajgi Ke Jinhain Khabar Nahin Rawish-e-Banda Parwari Kya Hai Luck favours the fool and the mean, and exalts and lifts to the skies Only those who are base and low and know not how to patronize.
