How to Be a Movie Star: 15 Steps (with Pictures)

Sending out general information to agents and casting directors is not a great move.

Seven Steps for a Successful Acting Career

You need to make a good impression on , the gatekeepers of the industry. If you want it to be full-time, you MUST have the time to dedicate to it, because chances are in the first couple of years at least, you might not be making enough money to support yourself, so you will need either a base of money to fall back on or you will need to have streams of residual or passive income coming in so that you don't have to worry about how you will pay the rent.

How to Become a Young Teenage Actor

We wanted to take a look at how to get into acting without any experience.

Seven Steps for a Successful Acting Career

More established actors will be able to edit together clips of them in actual films and shows, however you will either need to fabricate and shoot a scene on location with a showreel company, or simply put down a few great self-tapes and make a self-tape showreel in the meantime. It will include any sort of special skills you possess, and your contact information.
