Citation

The collection provides an overview of the field and also indicates ways in which it is developing. An important fact is that the progress of science and technology in the West has had a great impact on on the Muslim societies.

305237447

The Islamic world has tried to absorb Western science and its by-products, and with it has absorbed some of the metaphysical and social implications of contemporary science.

Citation

This book tried to shed light on some of the issues concerning the relation of Islam and science. This Companion brings together an outstanding team of scholars to explore the ways in which science intersects with the major religions of the world and religious naturalism.
