Studies focusing around Kodiak Island indicate that humpback whales consume juvenile walleye pollock i. .

Assessing Age

On February 26, 2014, the State of Alaska submitted a petition to delineate the Central North Pacific Hawaii stock of the humpback whale as a DPS and remove the DPS from the List of Endangered and Threatened Species under the ESA. With this substantial, long-term commitment and investment, MacArthur hopes to support and demonstrate alternatives to incarceration as usual, and to create demand and momentum for change across the country.
