A study of Le Corbusier's Nôtre

This process, however, has no repercussions on human culture as a whole; it simply keeps the people involved from becoming disruptive.

INTRODUCTION TO THE HISTORY OF WESTERN ART

It is apparent that the incorporation of adequate electric light was not foreseen for the immediate future and the design of the chapel would have had to accommodate the restrictions inherent in relying heavily on natural light. As far as they were concerned whoever answered was a Communist, including family members.

Notes
