I did not expect it from such a friend.

Framley Parsonage

Tell her from me, that as regards the bishop, as well as regarding another great personage, the colour has been laid on perhaps a little too thickly.

Proudie can explain all that to you with the greatest accuracy. To view it, The 4th Barchester novel, mainly re the vicar Mark Robarts, but also Proudies, Grantlys, Greshams, Dr Thorne and Miss Dunstable. There are lots more reviews there, plus photos, chatty asides, interesting links, and bits and pieces on crafting.

Framley Parsonage (1871 edition)

Lady Lufton, who, as I have said, thought much of clerical matters, did not carry her High Church principles so far as to advocate celibacy for the clergy.
