Modern historians suggest that the Romans exaggerated the bloodthirsty nature of the worship of the Carthaginian deity Moloch in order to better justify their war against Carthage and that the large numbers of infant bodies found by archaeologists in a burial ground near Carthage may have been from disease rather than mass human sacrifice of small children.

Migration, Marriage, And Ethnicity

Therefore, the Aku in The Gambia, just like other descendants of African slaves elsewhere, can not pinpoint exactly where their African ancestors who were taken as slaves came from; although there's a highly probability that they came from West Africa since that was the main source of slaves during the slave trade. Harmonious relations are sometimes a product of inter-dependence. These civilizations are both heavily documented by written accounts, as are the other North African kingdoms of Numidia and Mauretania.
