As, moreover, several new manuscripts turned up afterwards or indeed were known in DINDORF'S times, but left unused by him, the time was ripe for a new edition. The Chronicle of George Syncellus, which contains fragments of Jubilees and 1 Enoch and references to Philo, Josephus, Thallus and Justus of Tiberias, was edited for the last time in 1829 by W.

Die Bibliotheca Teubneriana, established in 1849, has evolved into the world's most venerable and extensive series of editions of Greek and Latin literature, ranging from classical to Neo-Latin texts. The present text, edited by A. The new manuscript evidence, however, is not as important as might seem at first sight, for four manuscripts are dependent upon another, still extant manuscript MOSSHAMMER has retained their readings for the sake of codicological in- terests, Journal Journal for the Study of Judaism— Brill Published: Jan 1, 1986 APA Hilhorst, A.
