A book that does not look new and has been read but is in excellent condition. In the introduction, the editors noted that,? Did Hinduism ever reach the Pacific realms, bringing with it the incarnation theology of avatars? These two specific references to Mormonism, however, only serve to introduce several more complex references to Mormon theology which, though now obscured, would likely have been familiar to the readers of Melville's time. The great philosophies and religions of the world tell us that expected positive results do not justify their means of enactment -- when those means are dishonest or immoral.
