Here they are, in alphabetical order by title: About Time : A Visual Memoir Around the Clock , by Vahram Muratyan Little, Brown and Company
ABOUT THE BOOK: Take it, make it, lose it, have it, kill it, spend it, save it, forget it, break it, set it, repeat it, keep it: time flies and time crawls. Although Forster was politically engaged, his lectures make little reference to political or historical events. Snow fell in our hair.

Aspects of the Novel

Lily is the most beautiful—and forbidden—woman Robbie has ever known. Using the novel Tristram Shandy, by Sterne, as an example, Forster claims even novels that do not include literal elements of the supernatural may include an implication that supernatural forces are at work.

Aspects of the Novel

Paris is accurately portrayed as he remembered it: an artistic haven and a moveable feast.
