If it does not work, you will not have much else to draw from in your goal to persuade someone. Who can you rely on to give you the pulse of the company? Steve Jobs has been known to use coercion—yelling at employees and threatening to fire them.

The Role of International Organisations in World Politics

The more difficult something is to obtain, the more valuable it tends to be. Thus, the neo-realist critique can be seen from two different angles, that of the liberal institutionalists, affirming that in fact nations do comply to standards imposed by international organizations, and the pragmatic discourse, which concerns itself with the idea of the UN as a stage providing a framework for discussions and multi-lateral agreements. Legitimate authority is that which is recognized as legitimate and justified by both the ruler and the ruled.
