Cheshire History 1 to 15

The population of Cheshire and of England grew rapidly during the 12th. In the garden, the Parrot House contains an exhibition of paintings by the artist. A gateway at the south-west corner of the garden leads down to a lower terraced lawn originally the Croquet Lawn, down the west side of which is balustrading.

The survey states that whereas before 1066 there were 48 houses which paid tax implying a population of at least 2,400, by 107 there were 205 fewer houses, the scale of the loss making it certain that major catastrophe had taken place. The loggia is listed at Grade II. Thank you so much Andy and Josh! In the area around the Stable Court are further structures listed at Grade II.
