Deconstruction and Love

First, with the collapse of the Soviet sphere, the American-led liberal international order became the only surviving framework for order, and a growing number and diversity of states began to be integrated into it.

Recontextualising violence, power and nature: The next twenty years of critical geopolitics?

Vichy always was and always will remain null and void. Lukács's Theory of the Novel might be one of the more unrewarding books that I have recently read, for two reasons.

Cat's Cradle Themes

By denying indigenous peoples full citizenship and the benefits of the Declaration of the Rights of Man, the Republic seemed to overlook the universality of its own values, or to deny the humanity of the indigènes. In addition, Martin's arguments regarding the relationship between Sartre and Marxism, and what they offer to each other, are both clear and conversant in the debates between Leninism and Maoism. Their economies converged, their interests were aligned and they generally trusted each other.

John Martin Ellis, Against Deconstruction

In this sense, the Cold War roots of the postwar liberal order reinforced the sense that the liberal democracies were involved in a common political project.

Bill Martin

Incomes and life opportunities steadily increased for the postwar generations of Europeans, Japanese and Americans. Indeed, the family policies of the Vichy regime were defined in reaction to republican alleged disorder—although the image of the family they conveyed hardly coincided with the reality of a society in disarray, as evidenced by the contrast between the pro-natalist.
