In fact, it has deteriorated due to the rising numbers of people sentenced to death, mounting executions, and the dwindling number of attorneys willing, or able, to handle capital cases during collateral proceedings. Under the consent decree and its State Plan for Compliance, the State of Michigan was to present a plan for adequate mental health care by April 1985.

Former reporter released from MCI

We would not dispose of property in any legal proceeding the way those people's lives were disposed of.
