Which Countries Are Not Members Of The United Nations?

The United States consistently ranks as the largest supplier of goods and services to the UN system and there is more room to grow.

Member states of the United Nations

Name was changed back to the Central African Republic on 20 September 1979. Trygve Lie of Norway served as the first Secretary-General, and Antonio Guterres of Portugal serves as the current Secretary-General. The secretary also made the mistake of confusing the Vatican City State and the Holy See, which are two different entities.
