It engages frankly with issues of class and gender, and I loved reading about the early feminist movement. The latter being a fearless feminist whose life work is to educate and motivate these spinsters to live independent lives sans men. To support her he started stealing, ended up being convicted of theft and had to leave the college.

Her colleague Mary is on the same page too : I tell you the simple truth when I say that more than half of these men regard their wives with active disgust. Although still a controversial subject, writers such as and George Moore addressed sexual desire head on in novels such as 1895 and Esther Waters 1894.
