The bailor is entitled to recover possession of the ring by paying back the loan within the time period. Even though no specific assurance, and only some vague conduct indicating an assurance, was present, the House of Lords held that David had a good proprietary estoppel claim. In all cases it allows people who act on others' assurances about legal rights, even without them attaining express agreement.

Entailment and Property Law

Although land may be acquired by consent, and conduct which raises another party's reasonable expectations, these private methods of acquiring land are often insufficient for adequate public regulation. Parliament had enacted the same reform already as a part of family law.
