The Invisibility Cloak

He said cities like Beijing and other places in the South have been around since the Tang Dynasty, in 600 through 700 B. I can't judge the translation except to say that it seems very well suited to the narrative and is not at all obtrusive, which surely must be the most important thing. Check back often as we will continue to update this page with new relationship details.

The Invisibility Cloak

That relationship was marked very clearly by a particular freedom of exchange—we have people who come to the city from the countryside to take up post officials, we have people who come to the city to settle lawsuits, we have retiring businessmen, retiring scholars, who move back to the countryside.
