Italian Paintings of the early Renaissance : twenty

All the ruins already pointed out, as well as those that will be seen further on, were made systematically.

Italian painting, 1200

The latter came to a tragic end in 1830; he was found hanging from the fastening of a window in his castle of Saint-Leu, and with him died the great family of Condé. Once on the Italian side the whole climatic aspect of things changes. Though early Christian communities harbored some suspicion about classical poetry, viewing it as idolatrous and its rhetoric as more concerned with self-congratulatory beauty than with truth, nevertheless the rise of religious poetry in the ante-Nicene period was aided by the increasing number of educated Romans converting to Christianity, and by a growing recognition of the literary value of the Bible with its trove of figures and rhetorical flourishes.
