Strange how bits and pieces of former life leave a trace long after you have moved on. Look at the index of titles in this edition: only a little more than two pages long, in an edition with 600 pages of poetry plus 70-odd of prose, not counting the introductions and dedications to the previous poems, and more than 200 pages of notes.

Selected Poems By Percy Bysshe Shelley

Where Coleridge seems erudite, Shelley seems merely self-serious. Of course Shelley is always ready with a tag or reference.

Selected Poems and Prose by Percy Bysshe Shelley

There are many topics related to medicine in this section and each subtopic contains many free medical books and resources which are very useful for both physicians and students.

Review: Percy Bysshe Shelley 'Selected Poems and Prose'

Shelley was born on August 4, 1792 in Field Place, Broad Bridge, near Horsham, England.

Selected Poetry and Prose by Percy Bysshe Shelley

His poetry balances the delicate, contemplative, and latinate with the alliterative and anglo-saxon. He co-edits the Longman Shelley, and is the author of Shelley and the Revolutionary Sublime. Though, I think I prefer his shorter verse to his longer verse.
