

Register of Henry Chichele - Archbishop of Canterbury 1414-1443.

Oxford University Press - Chichele Breviary

Description: -

-

Plant maintenance -- Congresses.

Occupational training -- Congresses.

Catholic Church. -- Diocese of Canterbury.register of Henry Chichele

- Archbishop of Canterbury 1414-1443.

-

Barnes & Noble classics

Canterbury and York series -- 46register of Henry Chichele -

Archbishop of Canterbury 1414-1443.

Notes: Latin text.

This edition was published in 1945

Filesize: 45.104 MB

Tags: #Catalog #Record: #The #of #Henry #Chichele, #Archbishop #of..

MiddleEnglishDictionary

Swithin, on the basis of the great trust I place in them, to transfer possession of all those lands and tenements with appurtenances to him or them to whom my executors or their executors shall sell those lands and tenements with appurtenances, when they are required to do so by my executors or their executors.

Henry Chichele (abt.1364

And that the money received by those vendors from such sale of my lands and tenements with appurtenances be faithfully disposed of and distributed through charitable works, as they judge best for my soul and the other souls mentioned above. Examining archaeological, historical and literary evidence together, this book enables a better understanding of the ways in which people from Wales interacted with and understood their near and distant neighbours. John the Baptist and St.

Henry Chichele (abt.1364

Bequests might seek to relieve prisoners of the debts keeping them imprisoned, or to improve by providing prisoners money with which they could buy food. Chichele, Archbishop of Canterbury London 1699. On the conditions that: for all future time those poor people say special prayers for the souls of myself and my late wife Margery, the souls of our fathers and mothers, and the souls of all the faithful deceased; the company wardens hold and observe annually, throughout the thirty years mentioned above as following immediately after my death, my obit or anniversary in a decent fashion, as described above.

Chichele, Henry 1362?

Edward the Confessor of Higham Ferrers, , the right reverend father in Christ, dom. There is no contemporary authority for the charge, which seems to appear first in Redman's rhetorical history of Henry V, written in 1540 with an eye to the political situation at that time, As a matter of fact, the parliament at , in which the speeches were supposed to have been made, began on 30 April 1414 before Chichele was archbishop.

of Henry Chichele: Archbishop of Canterbury, 1414

He had interests in his own right in other property in Essex, Cambridgeshire, and Surrey, although it is not certain he was the outright owner.

of Henry Chichele: Archbishop of Canterbury, 1414

John Welles John Welles was born in Norwich, his father John de Welles already being of some prominence there by the 1360s and chosen as a city representative to the parliament of 1381; his will of 1384 indicates that his son and namesake was not yet 20. Educated at Oxford, he became doctor of laws, 1396.

Henry Chichele

Dunstan in the East towards the Tower of London, so that prayers be said for my soul and the souls of and his wife Eleanor: £10.

Related Books

- Gower and South-east Wales - a rock climbers guide
- Nuclear fuels
- Kumpulan surat edaran Mahkamah Agung, 1981-1991 - dilengkapi UU no. 5 thn. 1991 Kejaksaan Peradilan
- Trumpet-major - John Loveday, a soldier in the war with Buonaparte and Robert his brother, first mat
- Europe in the eighteenth century - Aristocracy and the Bourgeois challenge