A scandal in Oxford: the curious case of the stolen gospel

This was, surely, the same item as the fragment of Mark that had been the source of such intense scholarly speculation over the previous seven years.

Oxyrhynchus Papyri

The excavations were so productive that this site is first in Egypt for its yields of. He paced with arms flailing

Oxyrhynchus Papyri: Historical Treasure in Ancient Egyptian Garbage

According to Sampson, whose analysis will appear in full in a forthcoming academic article, the most plausible interpretation of all this is that the photographs were retrospectively staged by persons unknown — along with images of the Sappho fragment apparently being prised from a dark-brown mass of papyrus. Both the Museum of the Bible and Stimer have cooperated fully with the EES, and have taken steps to return the fragments.

The Oxyrhynchus papyri : Grenfell, Bernard P. (Bernard Pyne), 1869

Each volume contains a selection of material, covering a wide range of subjects. The editors include senior professionals but also students studying at the doctoral or undergraduate level.

An Update on the Case of the Stolen Oxyrhynchus Papyri

In 2011, a researcher on the Oxyrhynchus Project had identified it as from the first chapter of Mark. The extant text totals about forty-five lines plus some fragmentary words.

An Update on the Case of the Stolen Oxyrhynchus Papyri

It is part of the Oxyrhynchus Papyri series, a group of manuscripts discovered by archaeologists including Bernard P. They knew, for example, that they had been discovered on Egyptian papyrus in 1890. Ancient Lives Ancient lives is a project that asks volunteers to transcribe ancient Greek text on fragments from the Oxyrhynchus Papyri collection.

Oxyrhynchus: the Roman town

In Papiri della Università degli Studi di Milano, Vol. In 2014, around the time his antiquities dealership Castle Folio was incorporated, he bought himself a castle. Not exactly secretive, but very far from open, it carries the reputation of being cultish, even within the Oxford classics faculty.

A scandal in Oxford: the curious case of the stolen gospel

One factor that influenced the two men to choose this city as their excavation site was its reputation as a key Christian center in ancient times. However, the alleged thief seems to have erred in one crucial respect: they do not seem to have known, or taken into account, that there was back-up information allowing the EES to ascertain what had allegedly been stolen. There are many parts of other canonical books as well as many early Christian hymns, prayers, and letters also found among them.
