His designs are derived from mathematical transformations, and the patterns of his kimono shift and change as they move. On a fall day, the foliage view and rushing water offer a calming respite from the bustling shopping streets. The men, who wore pressed black suits and black top hats, sat on long benches in the bottom section.

Monuments Men Foundation for the Preservation of Art

Yes, treasures come in so many ways. Gebrüder Ettlinger was only two blocks from the palace, and in the late 1890s the regular patronage of Karl Wilhelm's descendant, the Grand Duchess Hilda von Baden, wife of Friedrich II von Baden, made it one of the most fashionable stores in the region.
