In an interview with , Borges recalled how his interactions with Argentina's Nazi sympathisers led him to write the short story.

Deutsches Requiem (short story)

These fat volumes each one has grown to some 900 pages features surveys of German, American, and British sf by Hermann Urbanek purely statistical in nature, without any criticism ; interviews with sf authors; surveys of films, radio dramas, and computer games many of them translations from English language publications ; and lots of reviews of current books. There is still no history of German sf in general, let alone a history of sf by a German scholar, and studies in German sf form only a small part of the total critical output. Hope you will like it and give your comments and suggestions.
