Until the security of Japan can be achieved, the threat of communist invasion will remain. Assist Japan to become economically self-supporting and to produce goods and services important to the United States and to the economic stability of the non-communist area of Asia. In the absence of such a settlement, and recognizing that currently there is no other acceptable alternative, continue the current military course of action in Korea, without commitment to unify Korea by military force, but designed to: 1 Inflict maximum losses on the enemy.

Foreign Relations of the United States, 1951, Asia and the Pacific, Volume VI, Part 1

Records relating to review of speeches, 1951; the manufacture of aircraft and other government-contracted property, 1948-50; and the evaluation of foreign military intelligence after its release for public dissemination, 1953.

Foreign Relations of the United States, 1951, Asia and the Pacific, Volume VI, Part 1

Continue strong efforts to deflate Chinese Communist political and military strength and prestige by inflicting heavy losses on Chinese forces in Korea through the present UN operation. Genetic resources of some major field crops in Africa.
