Any activities that contribute to personal profit or gain are forbidden. In addition, everything that cannot be done during Shabbat must be set up in advance: lights and appliances must be set or timers placed on them, if the household does so, the light bulb in the refrigerator must be removed, so it does not turn on when you open it, and preparations for the remaining Shabbat meals must be made. Outside the Pentateuch, evidence relating to the practical observance of the Sabbath is not overabundant, but it is more extensive than that found for most laws.

Shabta'ut : hebeṭim ḥevrativim (Book, 2000) [satis.farmjournal.com]

It is traditional to have a third meal before the Shabbat is over. Then a blessing is recited no later than eighteen minutes before sunset. Brown-Driver-Briggs 71 שָׁבַת verb cease, desist, rest As šabātu, probably cease, be completed DI WB Zim KAT 3.
