Pop music

Mad Song William Blake 1757-1827 The wild winds peep And the night is a-cold; Come hither, Sleep, And my griefs infold: But lo! He skilfully married African-American folk music with concert music, composing pieces like his African Suite, African Romances and Twenty-Four Negro Melodies. A thousand years ago such an assumption, easily possible, would have made it difficult for the Teuton to prove his right to life.
