Starwatch by Ian Blackport

They appear one by one, earlier every night. SATURN — spends the spring with Jupiter and Mars in the SE predawn sky.

Star Watch

The first stop, the Alchieves system, planet Trom. With Earth closing in on it in the orbital race, Mars looks much bigger and brighter than usual. Granite believed that Amy and Tekno were attempting to contact an invasion fleet and locked them away in his underground base.

HOME

But it rises earlier each day, approaching midnight from the morning side. It had an appealing ending which capped off the moral of the story told. Beltane was, and is, a celebration of the coming summer and hopes for an abundant harvest.

StarWATCH

An open architecture approach allows for the seamless incorporation of emerging technologies, such as biometrics and sophisticated CBRNE sensors, without the need for additional stand-alone interfaces running in parallel. The scheme is to rob the previously impenetrable university tower library known as Starwatch for a single scroll among myriads.
