Amid foreign withdrawal and a deteriorating security situation, this third COVID wave will be worse than the previous two. Strengthen the Afghan security forces and enhance their ability to withstand the test posed by the ongoing Taliban offensive.

11 Things to Know: Afghanistan on the Eve of Withdrawal

While the Taliban and Afghan Republic negotiating teams continue to meet in Doha in hopes of working out an agenda for talks, the broader prospects for meaningful negotiations are dim. This includes aircraft carriers, other large surface combatants, traditional amphibious ships, fourth generation tactical combat aircraft, and traditional armored vehicles. Strengthen the Afghan government, broaden its support among the Afghan people and support civil society engagement in the peace process.

Reshaping the U.S. Military with a New Force Planning Construct

The WHO Constitution lacks an explicit withdrawal provision. This will remain true even if efforts relating to homeland defense and security are boosted significantly. Manage domestic consequences and respond to disasters.
