Parish plans commemorative book for centennial

Justice Brown has made a significant contribution to the practice of law and is held in high esteem by her peers. She led a leadership mission to Israel in January 2000. It stood atop the marble cenotaph on the eastern lawn and is inscribed with the Oath of Allegiance of Members of Parliament, the National Anthem, the Affirmation of the People and the names of the victims of the attempted coup.

Philately

In 2002, Nancy and her work was honoured and recognised by being part of the Australia Post Legend Stamp series. Her marriage to Bill Brownbill in 1920 marked the start of her long association with the Australian Labor Party. Nancy Millis is a person with the rare combination of having scientific knowledge, industrial application and the ability to liaise with political, business, educational and scientific workers not only in Australia, but worldwide.
