How the US Civil War Divided Indian Nations

The Regular Army's frontier mission was interrupted by the onset of the Civil War, and the task of dealing with the Indians was transferred to the volunteers. Geronimo Geronimo and his band of Chiricahua Apache fought government domination longer than any other group of Indians. While many know of the major events of the Civil War, few realize there were also Indian wars fought during that period of strife.

How the Civil War Became the Indian Wars

The Indian wars of the Reconstruction era devastated not just Native American nations but also the United States. Julia Coates, a Cherokee Nation tribal councilor and adjunct professor of American Indian Studies at Pasadena City College.
