And frankly, it is highly POV.

One of the things I do is look for content for in wikilinked articles. One of the links I show references ICS as an Ustahse State and collection of Jewish properties in favour of NDH.

Fifty-six Jewish communities were reconstructed, and the federation, with the aid of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee JDC , engaged in a variety of welfare projects, including the reopening of the home for the aged in Zagreb, extending material aid to the needy who began to return to their daily lives, etc. On that we agree Hungary shortly may be used for any Hungarian state and my point about Croatia case has been already expressed in the Tripartite Pact RFC, and obviously the article's scope of Holocaust of Hungary covers what has been Hungary then. I could go on and on.

The Holocaust in the State of An account based on German, Italian, and the other sources by Kostich, Lazo M: Fair Hardcover (1981) First Edition.

Both pages should name the territories by their actual names. Recognisability is also better with Independent State of Croatia, as the casual reader would think the scope of this article was the Holocaust in the territory of current-day Croatia, but it isn't.

The Holocaust in the State of : an account based on German, Italian, and the other sources / by Lazo M. Kostich.

It is their actual territory titles after all. The sources, as always, will tell. The Federal State of Croatia was an arm of the National Liberation Movement and later a federal subject of socialist Yugoslavia, not a sovereign entity in and of itself.

The Holocaust in The Independent State of Croatia DR Lazo M Kostich

But considering numerous books state Holocaust in ISC and use the title for that entity, I think it would make sense to specify that entity. The entity was installed on what was Yugoslavia territory. I will check, but I believe Croatian historian Ivo Goldstein says up to 80% of Zagreb Jews were exterminated, and the Zagreb synagogue was destroyed by the Ustashe authorities, with not enough surviving members to reestablish it.

The Holocaust in the State of An account based ..

So how can you honestly deem one German Occupied Serbia and the other just Croatia when both were occupied lands? Being that there were two claimed forms of Croatia, it should be noted which one the Ustashe waged their genocides. I have found content for some of's orphans, the problem is that I found more than one version. One could mistake this as a claim by some Serb trying to downplay or distance Serbian collaboration and involvement in the Holocaust.
