Selected Course Descriptions

Not all of us are specialists, but all of us tell stories and cultivate communities.

Language in India

Chidiebere I live in the United States, the decendent of slaves. In the western context, which however seems the basis of Glassie's interpretation, it might not be so significant; but in India these arts and crafts besides having aesthetic and practical functions, have at times a ritualistic-religious function as well.

Gikuyu

In the fall, harvest festivals are held to mark the end of the cycle.

LOL AND THE WORLD LOLS WITH YOU: MEMES AS MODERN FOLKLORE.

As children matured, boys were trained by their adult male relatives, and girls by their mothers, grandmothers, and older sisters.

Publications from MUNFLA Research

Radio and television regularly feature traditional Gikuyu material. For example, besides the by and large pan-Indian mode of worshipping the Hindu Pantheon, there are other modes of worship in India which seem to be very ancient and are still practised by a sizeable population. But the hatred merely fires them to do more and press for the best.

Women also excelled in making baskets. Folklorists explore the interplay between cultures as a dynamic relationship which encompasses past, present and future. I will forever be grateful to his good works because he restored my lost happiness and i am happy today because of his good work.

Igbo

It considers the power of these narratives to shape constructions of the present and future for both narrators and audiences. And since Ngweko was associated with reproduction, the Gikuyu considered it a sacred act of carrying out the orders of their high god Ngai to reproduce. Rich soils aid the growth of traditional crops such as sweet potatoes, bananas, millet, sorghum, cow-peas, and maize corn , which is the staple throughout Gikuyuland.
