Farm Progress

These efforts will need to be sustained and augmented if Canada is to take full advantage of the growing market opportunities in Asia. However, resource constraints — particularly of land, soil quality and water — suggest that there will also be a need for additional imports of food from outside the immediate region.

China already has a number of free trade agreements FTAs with other Asian countries, including the ASEAN members Brunei, Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam, as well as Pakistan, India, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka. But a few Canadian crops have had stronger sales to China over the past year.

Prospect of U.S.

The trade agreement that would cause Canada the most difficulty, if Canada were to not become a member of it, is the Trans-Pacific Partnership TPP, currently the subject of negotiations involving Australia, Brunei, Chile, Malaysia, New Zealand, Peru, Singapore, Vietnam and the United States. Progress and prospects for event tourism research

In more recent years, Australia, South Korea, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Taiwan have all become significant markets for Canadian pork. There is no mention of urban agriculture within Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada's recent strategy document for Environmentally Sustainable Agriculture AAFC, 1997, and it has not been addressed seriously in any policy document in the past ten years.
