Acts: 1714

One of the reasons to sometimes prefer Mary that has come up on this page is fear of God as Judge. The saints carry our prayers to Jesus.

The Spurgeon Library

Then shalt thou have glory before them that sit at table with thee. But I must not multiply illustrations from nature or from history, for they rise spontaneously before your own minds. The other two, Henri de la Mare and Jacques Bernard, humbly besought the favor of Calvin, and begged him to return.

In Defense of Exaggerated Marian Devotion

Lighting a candle is usually for a special intention. But the expansion of the former must inherently infringe upon the latter, and in our culture that is not an improvement in access, quality, or efficiency. It must feel as if they are fighting a losing battle against secularisation and sexual liberation, trends that are in fashion even on the political right.

Why does that bother you so much that Mary was an extra-ordinarily blessed woman? But how long he waited for the expected heir! If you want to discuss this, I would suggest starting a different comment or maybe e-mailing back and forth. You view them on-line, many repeat with donkey heads and trumpets being blown out of the posterior end of Popes. Since any prayer to Mary is just asking her to add her prayers to ours.
