Volume 1 appeared in German in 1867, and the two subsequent volumes appeared at later dates after the author's death - completed from extensive notes left by Marx himself. The Capital and Labour problem is thus universalised ; but, at the same time, it is also simplified. Coal mines in which more than a thousand workers are employed are numerous, and there is a fair number of textile factories in each of which from 300 to 700 workers are occupied.
